GENERAL RULES OF THE ANGELINA COUNTY FAIR

I. DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of these rules the term Exhibitor means any person/ student in whose name the animal is entered and primarily responsible for the feeding, caring, training, and grooming/ fitting of the animal. For the purposes of these rules the term family means brother, sister, step sibling or half sibling. For the purpose of the rules the term validation means ownership of animal.

I. ELIGIBILITY

All exhibitors must be bonafide FFA or 4-H members in Angelina County under the supervision of a Vocational Agriculture Teacher or County Extension agent and must be enrolled in a public, private school or contracted feeder school in Angelina County of less than college level on the day of the show. All exhibitors must be eligible in accordance with UIL guidelines (no pass, no play). Grades must be verified by principals prior to show date. Animals belonging to anyone not eligible to show will not be allowed on show grounds. Eligibility will be verified through the show office and the schools. The Exhibitor is responsible for turning in an Eligibility form at show check-in IF they are not passing at the last grading period. Failure to comply may result in exhibitor disqualification. Exhibitors that attend home school or private schools must turn in an eligibility form to the CEO prior to the week of the show.

III. SUBSTITUTION OF EXHIBITOR

The exhibitor in whose name the animal is entered must show/exhibit the animal. Substitution of the exhibitor may be approved by the division superintendent in the following instances: (1) for injury or illness to the exhibitor rendering him/her incapable of safely exhibiting the animal; (2) required attendance/ participation in a school activity, including but not limited to the following: athletic game, UIL competition, field trip for grade.

IV. ENTRY FEES

1. The entry fees for the Angelina County Junior Livestock Show will be as follows:

Steers $25.00 per animal	Breeding Rabbits $15.00 for 1 st animal + $5 each additional
Market Goats $25.00 per animal	Broilers $75.00/per pen (price includes cost of birds)
Market Hogs $25.00 per animal	Breeding Beef $25.00 per animal
Market Lambs $25.00 per animal	Commercial Heifers $25.00 per pen
Market Rabbits $25.00 per pen	Foal Futurity $25.00 per animal

2. Entry forms will be taken online at www.AngelinaCountyFair.com. Payment can be made online or to your Advisor or CEO. Failure to enter online by deadline will result in a $20/entry late fee.

V. FEES - A fee of 5% of the gross sales price will be charged for each entry sold at auction or through the Angelina County Fair Foundation.

VI. PREMIUMS & AUCTION

The number of animals sold in auction is calculated based on the number of exhibitors who validate. Any fraction of an animal, if the percentage is applied, will be rounded up to the next whole number. No animals can be pulled from the auction 2 hours after the sale selection. Premiums will be paid in Beef Breeding. An additional premium will be paid to the Champion and Reserve Champion of the Beef Breeding Division. All checks must be picked up from their representative (FFA, FCCLA, or CEO) offices within 90 days of issue. Checks not cashed within 90 days will incur a $50 reissue fee. Monies not picked up on or before 180 days of issue may become property of the Angelina County Fair.

VII. RIBBONS

All animals exhibited will receive a ribbon at the discretion of the judge. A grand champion and reserve champion award will be presented in each division. Other awards may be presented as listed under the rules and regulations of each division.

VIII. AWARDS:

A Herdsman Award will be provided in the following divisions: Beef, Hogs, Lambs, Goats and Foal Futurity. Decorations may not be displayed before Tuesday of show week.

IX. WEARING APPAREL

All exhibitors must wear exhibitor numbers visibly displayed. Numbers will be provided at check-in.

X. PROTESTS

1. All protests must be in writing and be accompanied by a deposit of $50 in cash which will be forfeited if the protest is not sustained. Such protests must state plainly the cause of the complaint or appeal and must be delivered to the division superintendent immediately after the occasion for such protest. Judging procedures shall not be interrupted for protest investigation. However, a decision may be withheld until a thorough investigation is completed.
2. All protests will be decided by the Appeals Committee. All decisions of the Appeals Committee will be final. The Appeals Committee will consist of anonymous individuals chosen by the Angelina County Fair Board President prior to the show.
3. No placement of animals by a judge may be protested.

XI. CARE OF ANIMALS

All animals must be taken care of following judging and until release. The exhibitor or a parent must remain with the animals in auction until they leave the grounds.

XII. DISPOSITION OF ANIMALS

1. Sale will be a market sale. Possession of all sale animals will be taken by buyer or by resale trailer if deemed resale at purchase.
2. All animals placed in the sale become the property of the Angelina County Fair until purchased by the winning bid at auction. Once an animal is deemed resale, it is property of the resale buyer and the animal must remain on the trailer. No sale animals may be traded for any other animals at any time on the premises of the Angelina County Exposition Center.
3. Any animal remaining on the premises of the Angelina County Exposition Center after midnight on the night of the sale becomes the property of the Angelina County Fair, unless the owner of the animal is present at that time to account for the animal.

XIII. MEDICATION

1. No slaughter animals (steer, lamb, hog, and goat, broiler or market rabbit) shall be administered any substance not approved by the Food & Drug Administration and/ or the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture. No slaughter animals should be exhibited at the Angelina County Youth Fair if said animal is still within withdrawal time relative to the administration of the approved drug, chemical or feed additive. If it is medically necessary to treat an animal prior to the official check-in, and the animal will still be within a withdrawal time not to exceed 15 days at time of check-in, then exhibitor must notify the division superintendent at time of check in of the treatment and provide documentation from a licensed veterinarian of the necessity and purpose of treatment, date of administration of drugs or chemicals, and the duration of withdrawal time for each drug or chemical. Further, the animal must submit to urine test at the same time it is administered to the Grand and Reserve animals. All treatment costs, costs associated with the urine test, and if necessary, care and feeding of animal during withdrawal period, shall be the responsibility of the exhibitor. This section is not intended to allow approved drugs, chemicals or medication to enhance an animal's performance.

2. If a market animal requires emergency treatment while on show grounds, the show superintendent of the respective division shall be notified. If the animal requires treatment with an approved drug or chemical having a withdrawal period, the treatment must be rendered by a licensed veterinarian. Further, the animal must submit to a urine test immediately upon notification to the superintendent. All treatment costs and costs associated with the urine test are the responsibility of the exhibitor. If an animal is treated while at the show and the medication administered exceeds fifteen (15) days withdrawal time, the animal will be disqualified and not allowed to be shown and must be immediately removed from the show grounds by the exhibitor. Should a slaughter animal require medication after arriving at the show, of which medication requires a fifteen (15) day or less withdrawal period, the animal will be fed and cared for at the expense of the exhibitor, for the duration of the withdrawal time. No needles are allowed on the show grounds. Violators and their animal in question will be disqualified from participating in the Show.

3. An exhibitor whose animal is found in violation of the rules regarding withdrawal time of approved drugs, chemicals or feed additives must forfeit 15% of sale price, with the proceeds being applied to the cost of drug testing of the grand, reserve and random animals and an amount equal to the cost of all urine tests at the show and cost of caring and feeding the animal for the remainder of the withdrawal period. Random samples may be taken of animals in each division, in addition to the Grand and Reserve Champion winners. The Angelina County Fair reserves the right to condemn and/or disqualify an animal, either live or slaughtered, found, in the opinion of the Angelina County Fair, to have flagrantly or knowingly violated the use of approved drugs, chemicals or feed additives as described above.

4. The showing of any animal that has been administered any quantity of diuretic, unapproved growth stimulant or other unapproved medication, or that has not been properly withdrawn from approved drugs is prohibited. Unapproved is deemed to mean not approved by the Food & Drug Administration (FDA) and/ or the US Dept. of Agriculture (USDA) for slaughter animals. As a condition for participation in the Angelina County Fair, every exhibitor must agree to submit any animal entered by exhibitor to inspection by a veterinarian and agrees to have such animal submitted to any tests as may be designated and requested by the veterinarian.

5. The grand and reserve champions steers, hogs, lambs, goats and broilers shall have tissue, fecal, blood and/ or urine laboratory analysis immediately following their placement.

6. An exhibitor of an animal producing an analysis with a quantity of diuretic, unapproved growth stimulant or any other unapproved medication will forfeit all rights and privileges to awards, premium monies and participation or proceeds from market sale auction, including, but not limited to, plaques, ribbons, belt buckles, sale and/ or resale proceeds, and to exhibit livestock in the future of the Angelina County Fair.

7. "Calf calm", "pig calm" etc. in its original dispenser will be allowed to be given to an animal while on the show grounds. Drenching may be performed with drenching guns. Stomach pumping, drenching tubes or any other method by esophagus is strictly prohibited. Violators will be disqualified immediately.

8. All medication, syringes, needles, or other medication applicator is banned from the premises. Premises is deemed to mean all buildings, parking lots and other appurtenances to the Angelina County Exposition Center, including show boxes, toolboxes and vehicles located on these premises. Any exhibitor found in possession of any medication, syringes, needs or other medication applicator will automatically be disqualified from the Angelina County Youth Fair.

XIV. REPLACEMENT OF CERTAIN MARKET ANIMALS

If, during the 14 day period following validation, a validated lamb, hog, goat, commercial heifer, or steer dies, and if the respective superintendent verifies that animal's demise it may be replaced and validated by the superintendent only within the 14 day period. The tag placed in the original animal will be reused in the replacement animal. (I. e. - validation date: Dec. 14 - Last day to replace/ retag: Dec. 28th (midnight).

XV. TAMPERING WITH ANIMALS

Tampering with animals is strictly prohibited. Anyone found to be tampering or found to have tampered with any animal at the show grounds shall be immediately and permanently removed from the show grounds. If in the judgment of the Youth Fair Rules Committee, an exhibitor was an intended beneficiary of such tampering; the exhibitor may be disqualified from the show and/ or sale.

XVI. SHOWGROUNDS

No dogs or other pets are allowed on show grounds.

XVII. MAJOR SHOW TAGS

A participant may enter an animal with a major show tag in the Angelina County Fair. If the participant receives Grand or Reserve Grand Champion, they must sell their animal in the ACF auction. Exhibitors will need to inform the superintendent of the respective division prior to sale order being picked if they do not wish to place their animal in the ACF Auction.

1. All exhibitors are subject to the general rules of the Angelina County Fair Livestock Show and the Texas Animal Health Commission.
2. All entries must be submitted ONLINE on or before the November 20th. Payment can be made online, your advisor or CEO. Entries that are not registered online and paid will be taken at validation (ownership deadline) on December 12th from 8-10 a.m. with a $20 per entry late fee.
3. One steer per exhibitor may be validated OR One steer per exhibitor may be tagged as a family unit. One additional steer may be tagged with either option. Exhibitors must designate whether they are tagging as a family on Validation Date. Designation after validation will NOT be an option for any Exhibitor. If no designation is made on the entry form, it will be assumed that the Exhibitor is tagging as an individual. Exhibitor and steer tagged as a family will be paired at show weigh-in. Only one steer per exhibitor may be brought to the show grounds for Exhibition and sale. Any exhibitor bringing more than one animal of the same division to the show grounds shall be disqualified from that division.
4. All steers shall be castrated and dehorned prior to validation day.
5. Classes will be determined by weight (not breed or color) immediately after the number of qualified entries has been determined. The number of classes and class breaks will be determined by the show superintendent.
6. All steers will be clipped to have no more than ¼ inch of hair on any part of the animal's body. The only exception will be the tail on the switch. The switch may be ratted and balled or may be bobbed off. Steers will be checked at the time of the weigh-in for conformity of the ¼ inch or less of hair. Steers not in conformity will not be weighed for the show. Any steer(s) found in violation of this rule a second time will be eliminated from competition.
7. If, during the show, a steer becomes unruly and breaks away from the exhibitor or causes the exhibitor to lose control of the animal to the extent it places other exhibitors in danger of injury, or unduly interferes with exhibition of other steers, the Steer Show Superintendent shall direct that exhibitor to tie the unruly steer to rail after the second such occurrence. The judge will evaluate and place the steer from the tied position.
8. Auction: The top fifty (50) steers or 70%, whichever is less, will be sold at auction (with two alternates chosen). All steers will be ranked as placed by the judge in their respective classes. The Overall Grand & Reserve will sale first and then the judge will select the sale order from the remaining steers.
