GENERAL RULES OF THE ANGELINA COUNTY FAIR

I. DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of these rules the term Exhibitor means any person/student in whose name the animal is entered and primarily responsible for the feeding, caring, training, and grooming/fitting of the animal. For the purposes of these rules the term family means brother, sister, step sibling or half sibling. For the purpose of the rules the term validation means ownership of animals.

II. ELIGIBILITY

All exhibitors must be bonafide FFA or 4-H members in Angelina County under the supervision of a Vocational Agriculture Teacher or County Extension agent and must be enrolled in a public, private school or contracted feeder school in Angelina County of less than college level on the day of the show. All exhibitors must be eligible in accordance with UIL guidelines (no pass, no play). Grades must be verified by principals prior to show date. Animals belonging to anyone not eligible to show will not be allowed on show grounds. Eligibility will be verified through the show office and the schools. The Exhibitor is responsible for turning in an Eligibility form at show check-in IF they are not passing at the last grading period. Failure to comply may result in exhibitor disqualification. Exhibitors that attend home school or private schools must turn in an eligibility form to the CEO prior to the week of the show.

III. SUBSTITUTION OF EXHIBITOR

The exhibitor in whose name the animal is entered must show/exhibit the animal. Substitution of the exhibitor may be approved by the division superintendent in the following instances: (1) for injury, illness or condition to the exhibitor rendering him/her incapable of safely exhibiting the animal; (2) required attendance/participation in a school activity, including but not limited to the following: athletic game, UIL competition, field trip for grade. Substitutions must be an approved eligible exhibitor. Substitutes must be an approved eligible exhibitor. The board reserves the right to approve any substitution or assistance requested.

IV. ENTRY FEES

1. The entry fees for the Angelina County Junior Livestock Show will be as follows:

Steers $35.00 per animal	Foal Futurity $35.00 per animal	Broilers $85.00/per pen (includes cost of birds)
Market Goats $35.00 per animal	Market Rabbits $35.00 per pen	Breeding Beef $35.00 per animal
Market Hogs $35.00 per animal	Breeding Rabbits $25.00 for 1 st animal + $5 each additional	Commercial Heifers $35.00 per pen
Market Lambs $35.00 per animal

2. Entry forms will be taken online at www.AngelinaCountyFair.com. Payment can be made online or to your Advisor or CEO. Failure to enter online by deadline will result in a $20/entry late fee if within Late registration dates.

V. FEES - A fee of 5% of the gross sales price will be charged for each entry sold at auction or through the Angelina County Fair Foundation.

VI. PREMIUMS & AUCTION

The number of animals sold in the auction is calculated based on the number of exhibitors who validate. Any fraction of an animal, if the percentage is applied, will be rounded up to the next whole number. No animals can be pulled from the auction 2 hours after the sale selection. Exhibitors awarded a spot in the auction but do not show up for the auction will not be allowed to enter ANY division of the ACF the following year. The Exhibitor plus ONE additional exhibitor is allowed in the auction ring as their project is sold. Premiums will be paid in Beef Breeding. An additional premium will be paid to the Champion and Reserve Champion of the Beef Breeding Division. All checks must be picked up from their representative (FFA, FCCLA, or CEO) offices within 90 days of issue. Checks not cashed within 90 days will incur a $50 reissue fee. (Reissue requests can be made to angelinacountyfair@gmail.com) Monies not picked up & processed on or before 180 days of issue may become property of the Angelina County Fair. No checks will be reissued after Nov. 1st.

VII. RIBBONS

All animals exhibited will receive a ribbon at the discretion of the judge. A grand champion and reserve champion award will be presented in each division. Other awards may be presented as listed under the rules and regulations of each division.

VIII. STALLING & AWARDS:

1. Stalling Assignments will be made for all species staying on the grounds. No locks can be placed on the stalls prior to check/weigh-in. Any locks placed on stalls by exhibitors or representatives will be cut off. Goat & Lambs may be required to share stalls within their clubs.
2. A Herdsman Award will be provided in the following divisions: Beef, Hogs, Lambs, Goats and Foal Futurity. Decorations may not be displayed before Tuesday of show week. Decorations MUST be removed by the start of the Auction by the club members or leaders.

IX. WEARING APPAREL

All exhibitors must wear exhibitor numbers visibly displayed. Numbers will be provided at check-in.

X. PROTESTS

1. All protests must be in writing and be accompanied by a deposit of $250 in cash which will be forfeited if the protest is not sustained. Such protests must state plainly the cause of the complaint or appeal and must be delivered to the division superintendent immediately after the occasion for such protest. Judging procedures shall not be interrupted for protest investigation. However, a decision may be withheld until a thorough investigation is completed.
2. All protests will be decided by the Appeals Committee. All decisions of the Appeals Committee will be final. The Appeals Committee will consist of anonymous individuals chosen by the Angelina County Fair Board President prior to the show.
3. No placement of animals by a judge may be protested.
4. All weights written on the exhibitor card and official paperwork are considered official and cannot be contested once the animal leaves the official weigh-in area.

XI. CARE OF ANIMALS

With all animals being a food or production project, all exhibitors must complete and pass the Quality Counts course to register/exhibit an animal in the Angelina County Fair. All animals must be taken care of following judging and until release. The exhibitor or a parent must remain with the animals in auction until they leave the grounds.

XII. DISPOSITION OF ANIMALS

1. Sale will be a market sale. Possession of all sale animals will be taken by buyer or by resale trailer if deemed resale at purchase.
2. All animals placed in the sale become the property of the Angelina County Fair until purchased by the winning bid at auction. Once an animal is deemed resale, it is property of the resale buyer, and the animal must remain on the trailer. No sale animals may be traded for any other animals at any time on the premises of the George H Henderson Jr. Exposition Center.
3. Any animal remaining on the premises of the George H Henderson Jr. Exposition Center after midnight on the night of the sale becomes the property of the Angelina County Fair unless the owner of the animal is present at that time to account for the animal.

XIII. MEDICATION

1. No slaughter animals (steer, lamb, hog, and goat, broiler or market rabbit) shall be administered any substance not approved by the Food & Drug Administration and/ or the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture. No slaughter animals should be exhibited at the Angelina County Youth Fair if said animal is still within withdrawal time relative to the administration of the approved drug, chemical or feed additive. If it is medically necessary to treat an animal prior to the official check-in, and the animal will still be within a withdrawal time not to exceed 15 days at time of check-in, then exhibitor must notify the division superintendent at time of check in of the treatment and provide documentation from a licensed veterinarian of the necessity and purpose of treatment, date of administration of drugs or chemicals, and the duration of withdrawal time for each drug or chemical. Further, the animal must submit to urine test at the same time it is administered to the Grand and Reserve animals. All treatment costs, costs associated with the urine test, and if necessary, care and feeding of animal during withdrawal period, shall be the responsibility of the exhibitor. This section is not intended to allow approved drugs, chemicals, or medication to enhance an animal's performance.
2. If a market animal requires emergency treatment while on show grounds, the show superintendent of the respective division shall be notified. If the animal requires treatment with an approved drug or chemical having a withdrawal period, the treatment must be rendered by a licensed veterinarian. Further, the animal must submit to a urine test immediately upon notification to the superintendent. All treatment costs and costs associated with the urine test are the responsibility of the exhibitor. If an animal is treated while at the show and the medication administered exceeds fifteen (15) days withdrawal time, the animal will be disqualified and not allowed to be shown and must be immediately removed from the show grounds by the exhibitor. Should a slaughter animal require medication after arriving at the show, of which medication requires a fifteen (15) day or less withdrawal period, the animal will be fed and cared for at the expense of the exhibitor, for the duration of the withdrawal time. No needles are allowed on the show grounds. Violators and their animal in question will be disqualified from participating in the Show.
3. An exhibitor whose animal is found in violation of the rules regarding withdrawal time of approved drugs, chemicals or feed additives must forfeit 15% of sale price, with the proceeds being applied to the cost of drug testing of the grand, reserve, and random animals and an amount equal to the cost of all urine tests at the show and cost of caring and feeding the animal for the remainder of the withdrawal period. Random samples may be taken of animals in each division, in addition to the Grand and Reserve Champion winners. The Angelina County Fair reserves the right to condemn and/or disqualify an animal, either live or slaughtered, found, in the opinion of the Angelina County Fair, to have flagrantly or knowingly violated the use of approved drugs, chemicals or feed additives as described above.
4. The showing of any animal that has been administered any quantity of diuretic, unapproved growth stimulant or other unapproved medication, or that has not been properly withdrawn from approved drugs is prohibited. Unapproved is deemed to mean not approved by the Food & Drug Administration (FDA) and/ or the US Dept. of Agriculture (USDA) for slaughter animals. As a condition for participation in the Angelina County Fair, every exhibitor must agree to submit any animal entered by exhibitor to inspection by a veterinarian and agrees to have such animal submitted to any tests as may be designated and requested by the veterinarian.
5. The grand and reserve champions steers, hogs, lambs, goats and broilers shall have tissue, fecal, blood and/ or urine laboratory analysis immediately following their placement.
6. An exhibitor of an animal producing an analysis with a quantity of diuretic, unapproved growth stimulant or any other unapproved medication will forfeit all rights and privileges to awards, premium monies and participation or proceeds from market sale auction, including, but not limited to, plaques, ribbons, belt buckles, sale and/ or resale proceeds, and to exhibit livestock in the future of the Angelina County Fair.
7. "Calf calm", "pig calm" etc. in its original dispenser will be allowed to be given to an animal while on the show grounds. Drenching may be performed with drenching guns. Stomach pumping, drenching tubes or any other method by esophagus is strictly prohibited. Violators will be disqualified immediately. The use of Magnetic Field Therapies (Magnawave) is allowed.
8. All medication, syringes, needles, or other medication applicators are banned from the premises. Premises is deemed to mean all buildings, parking lots and other appurtenances to the Angelina County Exposition Center, including show boxes, toolboxes and vehicles located on these premises. Any exhibitor found in possession of any medication, syringes, needs or other medication applicator will automatically be disqualified from the Angelina County Fair.
9. Animals may not be shown with performance enhancing devices. The only devices allowed are restraint devices (ie. Halter, Head stall or nose ring.)

XIV. REPLACEMENT OF CERTAIN MARKET ANIMALS

If, during the 14-day period following validation, a validated lamb, hog, goat, commercial heifer, or steer dies, and if the respective superintendent verifies that animal's demise it may be replaced and validated by the superintendent only within the 14-day period. The tag placed in the original animal will be reused in the replacement animal. (I. e. - validation date: Dec. 14 - Last day to replace/ retag: Dec. 28th (midnight).

XV. TAMPERING & GROOMING OF ANIMALS

1. Tampering with animals is strictly prohibited. Anyone found to be tampering with or found to have tampered with any animal at the show grounds shall be immediately and permanently removed from the show grounds. If in the judgment of the County Fair Rules Committee, an exhibitor was an intended beneficiary of such tampering, the exhibitor may be disqualified from the show and/or sale.
2. No gluing of artificial, extra hair or painting is permitted on market show animals.

XVI. SHOWGROUNDS

No dogs or other pets are allowed on show grounds.

XVII. MAJOR SHOW TAGS

A participant may enter an animal with a major show tag in the Angelina County Fair. If the participant receives Grand or Reserve Grand Champion, they must sell their animal in the ACF auction. Other placing exhibitors will need to inform the superintendent of the respective division prior to the sale order being picked if they do not wish to place their animal in the ACF Auction. Animals that have been tagged in for major shows can be exempt from the Angelina County Fair validations. To complete their entry to ACF they must register and pay for their project in the ACF online registration by the deadline date. They must also submit ear tag and profile photos of their entered project by registration deadline. The link for photo submission is found on our website. <https://angelinacountyfair.com/faq/>

BEHAVIOR

The management reserves the right to remove from the grounds any person whose actions are determined to be unsuitable or objectionable.

SHOWMANSHIP

HORSE, HOG, LAMB, RABBIT, GOAT SHOWMANSHIP and BEEF SHOWMANSHIP

Two showmanship awards (Junior & Senior) will be presented in the Horse, Hog, Lamb, Rabbit, Goat and Beef Division. Age divisions: Jr. - 13 & under on day of show; Sr. - 14 and up on day of show. Exhibitors must exhibit the animal owned by them and be entered in the show. The Senior Beef Showmanship winner will be the recipient of Chuck Arnold Showmanship Award.

DIVISION RULES AND REGULATIONS

MARKET STEER DIVISION sponsored by Southside Bank

Steer Show Superintendent – Heith Garcia – 936-414-5408

1. All exhibitors are subject to the general rules of the Angelina County Fair and the Texas Animal Health Commission.
2. All entries must be submitted ONLINE on or before November 20th. Payment can be made online, to your FFA advisor or CEO. Entries that are not registered online and paid will be taken at validation on December 12th from 8-10 a.m. with a $20/entry late fee. Steers tagged for majors can be exempt from ACF validation. See page 2 for registration requirements that must be completed by the time of validation.
3. Each exhibitor must validate a minimum of 1 steer with no limit to the number of steers an exhibitor can validate. An entry fee of $35.00 will apply to each steer entered. A steer may be validated in the name of two or more exhibitors, provided they are family as defined on page 3, and the number of steers is equal to or greater than the number of exhibitors. All names must be listed at time of validation. Designation after validation will NOT be an option for any family. Exhibitor and validated steer will be paired at show weigh-in. Only one steer per exhibitor may be brought to the show grounds for exhibition and sale. Any exhibitor bringing more than one animal of the same division to the show grounds shall be disqualified from that division.
4. All steers shall be castrated and dehorned prior to validation day.
5. Classes will be determined by weight (not breed or color) immediately after the number of qualified entries has been determined. The number of classes and class breaks will be determined by the show superintendent.
6. All steers will be clipped to have no more than ¼ inch of hair on any part of the animal's body. The only exception will be the tail on the switch. The switch may be ratted and balled or may be bobbed off. Steers will be checked at the time of the weigh-in for conformity of the ¼ inch or less of hair. Steers not in conformity will not be weighed for the show. No gluing of artificial or extra hair or painting is permitted on market animals. Any steer(s) found in violation of this rule a second time will be eliminated from competition.
7. WEIGHT LIMIT: Steers may weigh no less than 1000 lbs. (with a 25-lb. variance) on the official weigh-in date. All cattle not in compliance with the weight limit will be disqualified. One reweigh is allowed for those animals not meeting the minimum. No other reweighs are allowed. All weights written on the exhibitor card and official paperwork are considered official and cannot be contested once the animal leaves the official weigh-in area.
8. If, during the show, a steer becomes unruly and breaks away from the exhibitor or causes the exhibitor to lose control of the animal to the extent it places other exhibitors in danger of injury, or unduly interferes with exhibition of other steers, the Steer Show Superintendent shall direct that exhibitor to tie the unruly steer to rail after the second such occurrence. The judge will evaluate and place the steer from the tied position.
9. Auction: The top fifty (50) steers or 70%, whichever is less, will be sold at auction (with two alternates chosen). All steers will be ranked as placed by the judge in their respective classes. The Overall Grand & Reserve will sale first and then the judge will select the sale order from the remaining steers.
10. Awards: Belt buckles will be presented to the overall Grand Champion and Reserve Champion which will be selected from the class champions and reserve champions. Banners will be presented to the class champions and reserve champions.

MARKET HOG DIVISION sponsored by Allen Loggins & Sons

Hog Show Superintendent – Dillon Mason – 936-671-0526

1. All exhibitors are subject to the general rules of the Angelina County Fair Livestock Show and the regulations of the Texas Animal Health Commission.
2. Each exhibitor must validate a minimum of 1 hog with no limit to the number of hogs an exhibitor can validate. An entry fee of $35.00 will apply to each hog entered. A hog may be validated in the name of two or more exhibitors, provided they are family as defined on page 3 and the number of hogs is equal to or greater than the number of exhibitors. All names must be listed at time of registration/validation. Designation after validation will NOT be an option for any family. Exhibitor and validated hog will be paired at show weigh-in. Only one hog per exhibitor may be brought to the show grounds for exhibition and sale. Any exhibitor bringing more than one animal of the same division to the show grounds shall be disqualified from that division.
3. This division is open to gilt and barrow hogs.
4. All entries must be submitted ONLINE on or before November 20th. Payment can be made online or to your FFA advisor or CEO. Entries that are not registered online and paid will be taken at validation (ownership deadline) on December 12th from 8-10 a.m. with a $20 per entry late fee. Hogs tagged for majors can be exempt from ACF validation. See page 2 for registration requirements that must be complete by time of validation.
5. Classes will be determined by weight (not breed or color) immediately after the number of qualified entries has been determined. The number of classes will be determined by the show superintendent.
6. All market hog entries must stay in the hog barn until the hog show is completed and a release is obtained from the show superintendent. Sifted hogs will be released.
7. No gluing of artificial or extra hair or painting is permitted on market animals.
8. WEIGHT LIMIT: Hogs may weigh no less than 230 lbs. no more than 295 lbs. (with a 5-lb. variance) on the official weigh-in date. All other hogs not in compliance with the weight limit will be disqualified. All hogs must be dry and relatively clean. All weights written on the exhibitor card and official paperwork are considered official and cannot be contested once the animal leaves official weigh-in area.
9. AUCTION: The top fifty-six (56) hogs or 70%, whichever is less, will be sold at auction. All sale hogs will be selected from the blue-ribbon winners and then from the red ribbon winners. The sale order for market hogs will alternate among the weight classes, with the Grand Champion selling first, Reserve Champion selling second, the class champions and reserve champions not utilized for Grand Champion or Reserve Champion selling next, and rotation among the classes in this manner until the appropriate number of hogs is sold.
10. AWARDS: a. Belt buckles will be presented to the overall Grand Champion and Reserve Champion Market hogs.
b. Banners will be presented to the Champion and Reserve Champion in each weight class.

COMMERCIAL HEIFER DIVISION sponsored by Texas Farm Credit

Commercial Heifer Superintendent – Summer Garcia – 936-414-3781

1. All Entries in this division are subject to the general rules and regulations of the Angelina County Fair, except when they conflict with the special rules of this division, in which case, special rules will prevail.
2. All entries must be submitted and paid for online on or before November 20th. Payment not made online can be made to your FFA advisor or CEO by the deadline. Late registration will be accepted until December 12th with a $20 late fee. No registration accepted after December 12th.
3. Each heifer will be ear tagged by the exhibitor with tags provided by ACF. Contact the superintendent to pick up tags from Nov. 1st until December 12th. Commercial Heifers will not be allowed on the validation facilities during the validation of other divisions.
4. All animals must have brucellosis vaccination, be polled or dehorned by date of entry. Vaccination numbers, head and profile photos must be submitted to show proof of ACF registration compliance. Failure to submit this info to link on <https://angelinacountyfair.com/faq/> by December 14th will result in disqualification of entry without refund.
5. Exhibitors must validate a minimum of 1 pen of heifers, or they may enter multiple pens with a maximum of 3 heifers per pen. The 2 heifers shown as a pen can be chosen from any of the heifers validated. An entry fee will be charged for each pen registered. A pen may be validated in the name of two or more exhibitors, provided they are family as defined on page 3 and the number of pens is equal to or greater than the number of exhibitors. All names must be listed at time of registration/validation. Designation after validation will NOT be an option for any family.
6. Each heifer must be between 14 and 20 months of age at the time of the show & can be bred or open as of show date.
7. All quality commercial breeds and cross breeds will be eligible for the show. Heifers will be checked for quality prior to or at the time of entry by a sifting committee. All commercial heifers must be well maintained, on proper growing rations and suitable for replacement.
8. All heifers must be reasonably gentle but do not need to be halter broken.
9. The opportunity to sell at auction will be extended to the top seven (7) pens or 70% of entries, whichever is less. An exhibitor not wishing to participate in the auction shall advise the division superintendent in writing immediately after the judging. The next placing pen of heifers will be elevated into the sale. Once the sale order is submitted to the office, heifers cannot be withdrawn from the auction. A floor will be established on the pens (the "floor" will be the lowest price per pen the exhibitor would accept for his/ her heifers). The exhibitor of the heifers will become the resale buyer should the animals be deemed resale in the auction.
10. Commercial heifers will be judged on a 100-point system as follows: (1 to 70 points to the animals; 1 to 15 points to the record book; and 1 to 15 points to the interview with the judge. In case of a tie, points assigned to the animals will be the tie breaker. If pens are still tied, they will be re-evaluated by the judge to break the tie.
11. Record books are to be emailed to the superintendent by noon Monday of show week. Actual books will be turned in by noon Wednesday of show week during move-in.
12. A separate showmanship award will be given for the record book/interview for junior and senior level. Age divisions are (as day of show), Junior – 13 years and under, Senior – 14 years and up.

BROILER DIVISION sponsored by Pilgrim's

Superintendent – Weston Reynolds – 936-240-6412

1. All exhibitors are subject to the general rules of the Angelina County Fair and the regulations of the Texas Department of Agriculture.
2. All entries must be submitted ONLINE on or before November 20th. Payment can be made online or to your FFA advisor or CEO. Entries and fees will be taken until December 12th with a $20/entry late fee.
3. All chicks will be purchased by the County Fair Committee at the same time and from the same hatchery and sold in pens of 25 to the exhibitors. Birds must be picked up on February 19th from 3:30-5:00 at the CEO.
4. Each exhibitor must purchase at least one pen of chicks or may purchase multiple pens. Pens can be entered under the names of 2 or more exhibitors, provided they are family as defined on page 3 and the number of pens is equal to or greater than the number of exhibitors. All names must be listed at time of registration/pick up. Designation after broiler pick up is NOT an option for any family.
5. At the show, each exhibitor will be limited to one pen consisting of three broilers with wing band numbers from the pen of birds recorded in the exhibitor's name. The 3 birds can be chosen from any of the pens registered in the exhibitor's name.
6. Broilers must be owned and cared for by the exhibitor. Chicks should be wing banded by the hatchery and the wing band numbers recorded at the time of purchase. Only birds with wing bands may be shown.
7. A record will be performed by the judge for broken wings, bruises, breast blisters or other infirmities. The alternate bird from the exhibitor's pen may be substituted for a disqualified bird during the sift. There will be no substitutions after formal judging begins.
8. All birds brought to the fairgrounds may become the property of the Angelina County Fair. Destruction of the birds will be performed by USDA guidelines upon superintendent's discretion. Do not leave your birds on the Fair grounds unless instructed otherwise.
9. COMPLIANCE WITH THE MANDATORY TYPHOID PROGRAM: 1977 Pollorum Disease and Fowl Act requires all poultry going to public exhibition to be from typhoid clean flocks or hatcheries or have a negative Pollorum- Typhoid test prior to exhibition.
10. The show will be a split show consisting of a Rooster class and a Pullet class. Any pen with a rooster in it must show in the Rooster class. Determination of sex of birds is the judge decision and his decision is final.
11. First place pen from each class will compete for Grand Champion. The second-place pen from the Grand Champion's class will move up to compete for Reserve Grand Champion. After Grand and Reserve, the sale order will pick up with the highest placing pen opposite of the Reserve Grand Champion and then rotate throughout the rest of the sale order.
12. AUCTION: The top thirty (30) pens or 70 % of the entries, whichever is less, will be sold at auction. The percentage of birds selling from each class will equal the percentage of entries making the sale. (Example: If we are selling 60 % of entries, then we will sell 60 % of pullets and 60 % of roosters.). Wing band numbers will be checked on all sale pens.
13. AWARDS: Belt buckles will be presented to the Grand and Reserve Champion of the Broiler show. Banners will be presented to the first and second place class winners.
